I agreed to lead this walk on the understanding that I didn't have to preview it; However, even a non- SLOB like me shouldn't get lost ...

After spending Friday night at the Tidal River Camp we will walk from the Mt. Oberon dar park, 7 miles along the track to Sealers Cove, aiming to arrive there for lunch. Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning will be free time though short side walks will probably be arranged for/by the dedicated walkers amongst us.

After an early lunch we return along the same track (sorry but there's little option) and should reach the van about 5.00pm.

Water should be readily available but I'm less sure about firewood. To be sure of hot meals I'd recommend carrying a choofer, or bringing a friend with one. As we are sharing the van with another party there will be a limit of 20,

A FURTHER DAY WALK. (I everlooked to include it on previous page)

ATTENTION.

Notice is given for the next General Meeting - 29th September-that:-"The Melbourne Bushwalkers affiliate themselves with the Ski-Touring Association of Victoria providing their views don't conflict with ours."

This is a report of an investigation carried out by your fearless reporter into that manifestation of group insanity known as "Snow-walking". The victims of this terrible phsycosis appear in some ways normal in fact some are even employed and receive salaries.

Day 1.

We left the car park at Feathertop wearing winter gear, Balaclavas and intrepid mountaineers goggles, some clasped intrepid mountaineers snow axes in their bemittened hands. We climbed steadily to the old Federation Hut where we had lunch. The Leaders Wife suggested that we camp there, but the following objections were raised.

- 1/ Not cold enough.
- 2/ Not exposed enough.
- 3/ Not enough snow.
- 4/ Much to sensible.

We plodded personfully peakwards resting at Federation Hut where our clairvoyant climber cleverly camped. Onward we ploughed to the Razorback and hence to the Clamentina Spur where we camped in a howling gale on 1 ft of snow. We lit a fire, cooked and most people were in bed by 6 O'clock,

Day 2.

Arising from my iceblock of pain I cut my guy ropes from the snow, bent my tent and packed it. We then waited $4\frac{1}{2}$ hours for Simon and Peter who loved the cold so much they wouldn't leave.

We then returned to the carpark - some hardy souls visiting the top on the way. The view was superb and I'm sure the snow buffs enjoyed themselves.

Day 3.

Staved in bed with a cold and sore back.

Day 4.

As day 3.

14 DAY XMAS WALK - CANBERRA TO WILKY.

The walk will commence just south of Canberra on the 27th December, 1976. The route will cover the Brindabella Range, Tangtangara, Jagungal, The Main Range and down to Tom Groggin where there will be a food cache. From Tom Groggin the route will go over Mt. Pinnabar, Sassafrass Gap, Dartmouth, Bogong and then finally to Wilky.

From Melbourne we will travel to Canberra by bus. Wilky to Wangaratta will be by taxi in the absence of any other forms of suitable transport. We finally arrive back in Melbourne from Wangaratta by Train. The overall grading of the walk would have to be considered as Medium/Hard. for further information contact Alex Stirkul.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S PEN.

If you want to see the club publish our annual magazine "WALK" this year its time you did something positive to help rather than sitting back and leaving it all 'to the other chap'. We URGENTLY need Articles, Photographs, Slides, Track Notes or Humorous Items. All you need is a bit of determination and the ability to put down one word after another. No matter how short the piece it will be welcome, maybe a walk you have good or bad memories of, some little known facts about the bush or even how you see the rest of the club.

This is no idle threat, if we don't get A LOT of material in by the middle of September there won't be a magazine this year. All effort will be gratefully received by Rob Hayes.

Another practical way to serve the club is by leading a walk, come along to the Navigation and Leadership Introduction Course next month to start on the path to competent leadership. Each walk presents a challenge and there is a certain feeling of satisfaction when you read the end of the first walk you lead. We are always looking for new leaders, help us to reduce the numbers on a walk by having several leaders.

"The News" August, 1976.

Attendance records for Club trips were shattered on the 24th - 25th July when over 100 bushies were out on Club activities, over 50 were on Rodneys Skiing Trip, about 25 on Daves Feathertop Snow Slog and 25 on Robs Sunday Ramble.

The beginners Langlaufing Trip at Hotham was held in rather blustery weather and a few had their door hinges modified as the gale raged at Loch Car Park.

Saturday was spent battling the frustrations of wind and wrongly waxed skis but the worst was yet to come, as the group were settling down for the night on J.B. Plain, The wind which had subsided began to gust again in full fury. The experience could be likened to being in the middle of a cyclone, the tents and flys flapped incessantly all night and by the morning nearly everyones tent had come down at least once. Even Bob and Brian in the Kombi Van were having some anxious moments as it gyrated back and forth. Micks tent pole couldn't stand the strain and snapped in half. Alls well that ends well though, Chris Hellerud arrived on Sunday morning and the rest of the day was spent learning the finer arts of the diagonal stride, , the "helicopter turn", slalom and obstacle courses and a tour through the trees in the afternoon.

Robs walk was led in his inimitable tourist fashion with the group having two afternoon teas, the second about halfway up the mountain. To quote Harold G. - "This looks like the last base camp before the final assault on the mountain."

Mike Griffin was in the wars with the weather on his day walk on August 1st. Pouring rain, gale force winds, sleet and snow buffetted the intropid walkers as they made their way along the ridge with mighty trees crashing down all around them.

The Committee firaly weakened the other night and adjourned the August meeting to the warmth and comfort of the Tamani Bistro with Gerry chairing the meeting and asting as custodian of the Green Ginger Wine.

It looks like marriage isn't going to change John and Malda much if their "going-away-clothes" at the reception were any indication. They both turned up in bright orange parkas, check shirts, jeans and boots John reckoned they were going to turn up the next day for the Sunday walk just for a stir.

Congratulations to Geoff and Jenny Kenafacke on the arrival of their new son Wayne Andrew recently.(by the way the S.S. believes the Kenafackes might have started something amongst their regular Wilkie goers) Stay tuned for future developments.

The silver manufacturers will have to start smelting down more ore if current trends in the club continue. The Committee have all decided they want silver spoons, Malda started the ball rolling, now our Secretary and Walks Secretary have put in their application. Congratulations to Rob and Shelley, Alex and Margaret respectively.

 $G_{\bullet}W_{\bullet}J_{\bullet}$ has recently received a request from the Land Surveyors Journal for permission to reprint his "Walk '76" article in their official publication. Being a humble Chemistry Lecturer and not a high powered cartographer or something he was somewhat amazed at the whole thing pointing out to them that it wasn't aimed at a technical audience. Nevertheless they are going to print it with suitable credits.
